

DESCRIPTION

League emerged out of a fascination with an early Dan-X-Solo typeface, Gem, as well as a great fondness for Maple Black. Taking some influence from both of these faces, League was created. As is the case with these things, the eventual typeface departed a great deal from these original sources, developing a unique typographic tone all of its own. The black and its italic companion make for a very dramatic and distinctive display face. In 2008 League was used as the display face in an issue of Creative Week (UK).
